

BRANDS RALEIGH A LILY WHITE

Council Adopts Committee Report Exonerating Street Supervisor.

FERNSTROM DEFENDS HIM

TWO "AMERICAN" MEMBERS AVOID GOING ON RECORD.

Jake Raleigh is a "Lily White." The city council so decided last evening by a vote of 9 to 3, and the street supervisor is exonerated.

The vote was as follows:

For Raleigh—Cowburn, Fernstrom, Ferry, Holley, Hall, Martin, Murdoch, O'Donnell and Reedling.

Against Raleigh—Black, Raybould and Wood.

Excused—Hodgson, Stewart and President Davis.

After the so-called Raleigh investigation the council committee of the whole reported to the council that the charges brought by Councilman Wood had not been sustained. This report came up a week ago and consideration was postponed until last evening.

If it had not been for the Democratic members of the council, Raleigh would have been ousted from office.

"Americans" were hopelessly divided, as is shown by the vote. Ferry, Martin, O'Donnell and Reedling voted for Raleigh, while Raybould, Wood and Black voted against him. Hodgson, Davis and Stewart were excused because they had not been present at the investigation, although Martin could have used the same excuse, as he was not there, either.

This disposition among the "Americans" to avoid the recording of their votes gave cause for considerable comment, and it was freely asserted that the two that did not vote had a bad case of what is called "cold feet."

Postponement Voted Down.

When the report of the committee of the whole was read, Ferry moved its adoption. Stewart wanted the matter postponed indefinitely, but was downed by the opposition.

Stewart stated that the theft of the poll tax books from the street supervisor's office was enough for a postponement of at least two weeks.

Reedling did not agree with him, saying that the theft had nothing to do with the investigation.

Councilman Fernstrom made a strong speech in support of Raleigh. He intimated that some of those who had preferred the charges had stolen the poll tax books to make their case strong.

"The charges against Raleigh," he said, "were based on hearsay, misapprehension and straight out and out lying."

Councilman Hall, the Democratic representative from the Fourth ward, declared that the charges had not been proved and that he intended to vote to vindicate Raleigh.

Black said that he believed Raleigh guilty of incompetency and neglect of duty, but not of grafting. Wood made a long speech against the street supervisor, but did not seem to make any impression.

The taking of the vote was without incident.

St. Mark's Hospital Aid society will give a card party this afternoon at the Ladies' Literary club, for the benefit of the Nurses' home. Prizes and refreshments. All cordially welcome. Admission 50 cents.

WOMAN IS NATURALIZED.

Katharina Sterzer of Eureka Given Citizenship Papers.

It is rather unusual for a woman to apply for naturalization papers, but this has been done by Mrs. Katharina Sterzer of Eureka, who was admitted in the United States court yesterday.

Mrs. Sterzer, who is a native of Switzerland, was born in Hazelburg, Switzerland, on Aug. 3, 1868.

There are four children. The occupation set forth in the application is that of housewife.

On Tuesday we will have a choice lot of salmon trout, especially ordered for Ash Wednesday, weighing from 2 to 4 pounds, which we will sell at 18 cents per pound.

TRUSTY QUILTS HIS JOB.

Carl Carlson, a "trusty" at the city jail, walked away yesterday morning. He had not been captured, Carlson was on Feb. 8 sentenced to fifty days imprisonment for petty larceny. He was selected as one of the "trusties," who are employed in cleaning the police court and police headquarters building and seized the first opportunity to stroll away.

He might return to work this morning. Such things have happened a few days ago. Joe Sadler, convicted of stealing coal, slipped away from the chain gang. The next morning he appeared at the city jail and said that he was ready to go to work for the day with the chain gang, but that he would very much prefer to stay in his own home, instead of the city jail.

The man's experience with the chain gang had caused him a great deal of suffering. Pitying him, the guards reported the matter to Chief Pitt and a pardon was secured for Sadler.

YOUR OWN PERSONAL COMFORT

Is about the best thing you get out of life—if you get it.

Some people would get a lot more if they kept in closer touch with the modern ideas—for instance in bath requisites.

It is our business to keep in touch with every one who has a new idea along these lines, and in proportion to your regard for your own comfort, it is up to you to keep in touch with us.

Everything for the bath.

SCHRAMM'S

Where the Cars Stop.

COAL COMPANY IS TO BE TRIED

Union Pacific Concern to Answer Charge of Violating Anti-Trust Law.

ONE COUNT IS SUSTAINED

COUNT INVOLVING RAILROAD OFFICIALS OVERRULED.

The Union Pacific Coal company will have to answer a charge of violating the Sherman anti-trust law when the case of the United States against it is brought to trial in the federal court.

Yesterday Judge Marshall sustained the defendant's demurrer to one count, but overruled it on another, so that the case will go to trial on the second count of the indictment.

The Union Pacific Coal company, it is alleged, is the first count, entered into a general conspiracy with the Union Pacific railroad, the Oregon Short Line and a number of individuals to deprive a coal dealer, D. J. Sharp, of his right to sell coal at any price he wished. This count charged general conspiracy and was brought into the case by a statute covering that phase of interstate commerce. The defendant's demurrer to this count was sustained.

The second count, in brief, alleges that the Union Pacific Coal company placed a practical boycott on Sharp, by refusing to sell him coal when he had tendered the price, for the reason that he had cut the rate 50 cents a ton.

In this case it is claimed that Sharp, who was a prominent dealer, built a great storage warehouse to handle Union Pacific coal. This was in 1905.

When he advertised that he would sell coal for 50 cents a ton cheaper than the other dealers who were handling the product, he was told, it is claimed, that he could buy no more coal from the company, in spite of the fact that he had tendered the price asked by the company.

Extended hearings were held in this city before a member of the interstate commerce commission, who came here for that purpose. This investigation was held in September, 1906.

On the result of the inquiry was based the indictment brought by the grand jury.

The district attorney caused two counts to be laid in the indictment, so that in the event that one might not be acceptable to the court the other might, and so it proved to be.

It is probable that the trial of the case will be fixed at the April rule day, which is the first Monday in that month.

LOCAL BRIEFS

MARSHAL'S OFFICE BUSY—Captain Lucien H. Smyth, chief deputy United States marshal, is in Nephi and Deputy Julian Riley is in Uinta county, serving papers in court cases.

BRATEX—Excelsior Modern Woodmen of America, will give a banquet and entertainment this evening to celebrate the removal of the hall from the Knights of Pythias hall, 261 Main street.

ELGIN DAIRY CASE CONTINUED.—The case against the Elgin dairy, charged with selling milk without a license, continued until March 11 when called in the police court yesterday afternoon.

DEPRESSION HITS APELBAUM—Jerome Apelbaum says he has not been able to support his wife Rosa because of the recent financial depression. For complaint for divorce was filed recently and yesterday he answered, setting forth this contention.

MAY TAKE APPEAL.—The petition yesterday of the complainant in the case of Flora Clement against J. D. De Lamar, a mining suit, for an appeal to the circuit court, was granted. This case was adverse to Mrs. Clement.

MANDATE IS RECEIVED.—The mandate from the United States supreme court affirming the decision of the circuit court of this district, and also the circuit court of appeals, in the case of the United States Mining & Smelting company against Lawson, has been received.

DIVORCE IS GRANTED—Catherine Goodro was granted a divorce by Judge Armstrong from her husband, Peter J. Goodro. They were married in April, 1907. The wife asserts that her husband has failed to support her for the past year, and has given her a cruel and unkind custody of her two children.

MINING SUIT DISMISSED.—At the motion of the plaintiff in the case of the Central-Eureka Mining company against the Bullion-Beck company was dismissed yesterday in the United States court. This was an action to quiet title to the Muldoon and Silver Gable mining claims.

HEARING IS SET.—The hearing of the petition for modification of the injunction against the United States smelter in the case of James Godfrey was set for March 30 in the United States court yesterday. Similar action was taken in the case wherein S. M. Whitmore is plaintiff.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE—Jane Leyland yesterday asked the district court to grant her a divorce from E. J. Watts. She says that she married Watts on July 13, 1904, and that she has since that time been living with him, but that he has failed to provide for her. She asks that her maiden name of Jane Leyland be restored.

CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL FRATERNITY.—The local branch of the I. C. S. fraternity meets Thursday evening at R. E. hall, Auerbach building. All desiring to become charter members are requested to be present at that time. There are approximately 1,800 persons in Salt Lake entitled to membership in this order.

CANDIDATES ARE INITIATED.—Sixteen candidates were initiated at the meeting of the Ladies' Literary club last night at Odd Fellows' hall last night. There was a large gathering of members of the lodge and visiting strangers to witness the fledgling Odd Fellows. The first degree will be administered on Monday evening.

"RAZOR JACK" ON TRIAL.—E. J. Richardson, alias "Razor Jack," was placed on trial before Judge Armstrong yesterday on the charge of holding up S. H. Carmen and robbing him of $300. Paul Van Houghton and James Wilson are also charged with the crime. Richardson hopes to escape conviction.

GIRLS' SOCIETY ENTERTAINED.—At the Ladies' Literary club last night the members of the Girls' Friendly Society of Utah were delightfully entertained. There was a lecture on "Oxford University: Past and Present," by the Rev. George Townsend; recitations by Miss Nellie; bass solo by Edward Gore, and tenor solo by M. J. Brines.

MRS. MOLLER REAPPEARS.—Nicholas Moller asked the county attorney on Saturday to find his wife for him. He said that she had run away, taking with her their little girl. The wife appeared yesterday and said she had been compelled to leave her husband because of his cruelty. She is only 20 years of age.

DRUNKEN MINER CARRYING CHLD. MAKES ROUNDS OF THE SALOONS

Drunk, and carrying his 7-year-old son in his arms as he wandered from saloon to saloon, A. T. Olson, a miner, attracted the attention of a crowd of indignant women in State street yesterday afternoon. Some of the women summoned Policeman Pitts, while others hovered near the entrance of the Favorite saloon, at State and Second South streets, in which Olson disappeared about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. There the women could not follow him, and they were too timid to stand directly before the doorway of the barroom, but they took posts at respectable distances to the north and south of the saloon and viewed with great satisfaction the arrival of the policeman.

Policeman Pitts entered the bar and found Olson regaling himself with a glass of brandy. He was intoxicated, and was engaged in an argument with his little son. The boy, realizing that his father was tipsy, wanted to return home to 146 West Second South street. He did not relish his father's perch in the arms of his mother, who seemed in momentary danger of stumbling and falling to the floor.

Olson was arrested and taken to the city jail. The little boy was taken home to his mother by Detective Howell.

When searched at the city jail, Olson had more than $100 in his possession. It was learned that Olson has separated from his wife, who lives at the West Second South street address. He pays Mrs. Olson $20 a month for taking care of the boy, and is permitted to see the child whenever he comes to Salt Lake. He recently arrived from the mines and yesterday secured permission from Mrs. Olson to take the boy out walking. He entered almost every saloon along the way and, when he became intoxicated, fancied that the legs that were becoming unsteady belonged to his son. For that reason, he gathered the boy in his arms.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair, and finally several resolute members of the fair sex determined to send a petition to the city council against him, and make the child from his perilous position and to prevent the father from taking his little son into saloons.

As Olson dodged into the Favorite saloon, the policeman Pitts was found. It was necessary for the women to stand guard near the place until his arrival.

Women soon began to notice the strange pair